

Harding Tells Women Party Service Is Best

Can Accomplish Most Good by
Work in Organizations,
President Declares

PHILADELPHIA, May 4.—A telegram from President Harding, declaring the greatest service of women in politics "is within the organization of parties," was greeted with applause when read at a meeting here to-day of the state chairmen of the Republican women's political organizations of the eastern division.

The telegram, addressed to Mrs. Arthur Livermore, New York, who presided, said:

"I wish you would convey my cordial greetings and my expression of gratitude to the women of the eastern division of the Republican women's organization. I cannot refrain from expressing a deep interest in every such convention.

"The new era in American politics which calls women into the activities of the government, offers inspiration for women more frequently to get together for a fuller understanding of the obligations to the citizenship which they have assumed.

"I need not tell you that I firmly believe that the greatest service of women is within the organization of the parties, which are the chief agencies we shall have the influence of you and your associates in making the Republican party one of such purposes and such performance as to enlist the enthusiastic devotion of American womanhood throughout the land."

Women Voters Lay Plans For County Conventions

SPECIAL DISPATCH TO THE TRIBUNE
SYRACUSE, May 4.—Arrangements for the forthcoming county conventions were mapped out here to-day by leaders of the League of Women Voters who held all-day session at the Kanawha Club. Leaders from all over the state attended.

Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt, legislative chairman of the league; Mrs. Gordon Norris, vice-chairman, and Mrs. Charles Noel Edge, treasurer, all of New York, spoke at the morning session. This meeting was given over to making plans for the league's work and a discussion of the Child Welfare survey now being made by the league and methods of connecting this up in the public mind with local government.

The county conventions will open in about two months, one being held in every county in the state. Organization methods and the resolutions passed by the Executive Board were recommended by the standing committees. Important among these the women consider that which urges the President and Congress to make efforts for reduction of armament and the literacy test for citizenship.

At the afternoon session Mrs. Norris spoke on the policy and plans of the league and Mrs. Roosevelt on the legislative record of 1921.

Among those attending were Mrs. Katherine Bradley, Rochester; Mrs. Arthur Briggs, Buffalo; Mrs. S. T. Bena, Utica and Dr. Lavine Davis, Oneida, chairwomen in their respective counties.
